

Missing

Rosa Santiago

Known for her presence at the Sircomo Carnival Freak Show, Rosa Santiago suffers with a syndrome that causes her skin to become covered in wolverine-type hair, hence the name "The Wolverine Girl".

She stands just over five feet and weighs in at just 110 lbs. She has green eyes and a sweet voice.

We implore you that if you have any information regarding her present location to contact the Sircomo Carnival Freak Show at

402-555-2624