

Signs and Symptoms of being a witch

Known to be rude, angry, or cause constant conflict

You have too few or too many children

You have shown stubborn, strange, or forward behavior

You have a birthmark, mole, or third nipple

Butter or milk has gone sour in your ownership

You have held a physical relationship outside wedlock

Women are more suspect than men

You have no financial support and are forced to beg to live

You have financial support without being married

If you have broken any rule written within the Bible

If you suspect anyone of practicing witchcraft, bring such information forward immediately. If the party or parties are found guilty, they will be hung with their fates being sealed at the top of Gallows Hill by the way of a noose.

Cotton Mather

Judge

1692

Salem, Massachusetts